

THE FRONT MISSION STATEMENT

The Front engages and enriches the New Orleans community by providing accessible exposure to exceptional contemporary art with an emphasis on supporting innovative work by emerging artists through exhibition opportunities, and other career building programs. The Front functions as an encouraging space for autonomous experimentation and growth for both developing as well as more-established artists. As a member-administered nonprofit organization, we include artists who embody our diverse society, and we pursue singular artistic expression within a democratic framework.